

Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Advisor,

Official Position Title: Project Development Officer, Backstop 94, FSL-0343-03

Functional Title: Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Advisor

Location of Position: U.S. Agency for International Development, Bureau for Food Security, Office of Strategic Planning and Performance Management, Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning Team

Position Grade: FSL-03

Salary Range: $84,095 to $123,497

Position Closing Date: December 27, 2016, 11:59 PM, EST

Description of the Bureau: The USAID Bureau for Food Security (BFS) leads coordination and implementation of Feed the Future, the U.S. Government's global hunger and food security initiative. BFS brings together programmatic, technical, and regional expertise from throughout USAID to assist 19 Feed the Future focus countries and additional aligned countries and regional programs with strategic design, implementation and monitoring and evaluation. BFS coordinates Feed the Future's 10 additional U.S. Government partner agencies and departments, most recently on development and implementation of the new U.S. Government Global Food Security Strategy. This strategy, delivered to Congress as a requirement of the Global Food Security Act of 2016, charts how U.S. Government partners will support developing countries over the next five years to achieve lasting progress in food security and nutrition.

Description of Office or Team: The Strategic Planning and Performance Management (SPPM) Office oversees functions related to budget, program planning, monitoring, evaluation, and knowledge management. The Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning (MEL) team sits within the SPPM office. The mission of the team is to ensure accountability, learning, and increased effectiveness across USAID food security programming by: developing and maintaining a robust system and clear processes for measuring results of food security activities; providing leadership and guidance on monitoring, evaluation, and learning for food security programs and the broader food security sector; translating lessons learned (and evidence) to improve performance and inform program design, strategies, and resource allocation; and managing centrally-funded monitoring, evaluation, and learning activities that support accountability and learning goals across food security programs.

Description of Position: The M&E Specialist will provide support to develop and execute the monitoring, evaluation, and learning (MEL) functions of Feed the Future and the U.S. Government's Global Food Security Strategy (GFSS). Duties will include: 1) providing guidance and technical assistance to USAID operating units (OUs) on MEL; 2) serving as an expert and technical advisor on data analysis methods, including both qualitative and statistical analysis; 3) managing evaluations and research to support learning from food security programs; and 4) providing data-driven analyses and assessments to achieve the goals of USAID and Operating Units. The M&E Specialist will report to the Team Leader for M&E Country Support.

Description of Key Duties: The Advisor will provide USAID OUs, specifically in focus countries, with technical and analytical leadership and guidance on monitoring and evaluation for food security programs, assisting and giving guidance to design surveys and evaluations to examine the performance and progress of food security projects and activities. S/he will review and utilize performance monitoring data and evaluation findings to improve program performance. S/he will provide M&E technical support to USAID by staying informed of technical developments and methodologies through work with relevant USAID and partners. The Advisor will provide technical, analytical, administrative and/or managerial support for all stages of program design and implementation. S/he ensures that lessons learned and best practices from the most recent evaluations are disseminated and that evaluation results are available in decision-making.

Qualifications Required: This position requires experience designing or implementing monitoring and evaluation functions in international development contexts, experience working in cross-cultural environments, and knowledge of technical areas related to the measurement of progress or impact of food security development programs.

Eligibility: Only U.S. Citizens may apply.

Veteran's Preference: BFS will consider veteran's preference eligibility as a positive factor in making FSL selections. Applicants eligible for veteran's preference must include that information in their cover letter and should attach supporting documentation (e.g., the DD 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty and other supporting documentation) to their submissions.

Application Instructions: Please send detailed CV, cover letter and any supporting documentation to bfsjobs@usaid.gov with the position's official and functional titles in the e-mail subject line, by the position closing date listed above.

In your cover letter, please also:

1. indicate your U.S. citizenship status
2. indicate your veteran's status, if any, and
3. include contact information (name, title, e-mail and telephone) for three references, one of which must be a current or former supervisor.
